

ARES_Nets

In addition to each of the weekly training nets held by all of our respective quadrant units here in South Texas ARES District 14 comprised wholly of Harris County, we are literally surrounded by a host of others.

Of interest in South Texas ARES District 1 composed of all of the counties immediatly bordering on Harris County, are the following:

Brazoria County, Texas

ARES Net -- Monday night at 2000 Local time 145.110 - (123.0)

Fort Bend County, Texas

Emergency Management Radio Operator's Group (EMROG)

RACES Net -- Monday night at 1930 Local time 145.490 - (123.0)

Galveston County, Texas

Galveston County Emergency Communications Group (GCECG)

Information Net -- Monday night at 2100 Local time 145.410 - (131.8)

Montgomery County, Texas

ARES Net -- Tuesday night at 2000 Local time 147.020 + (136.5)

Waller County, Texas

ARES Net -- Thursday night at 2000 Local time 147.380 + (123.0)

In the HF radio spectrum you will find the following:

Arkansas ARES Emergency Training Net

Sunday morning at 0700 Local time - 3987.5 kHz.

Louisiana ARES Net

Sunday night at 1930 Local time - 3873 kHz.

Oklahoma ARES Net

Sunday afternoon at 1630 Local time - 3900/7260 kHz.

Texas ARES Net

Monday night at 1930 Local time - 3873 kHz.

"When all else fails -- Amateur Radio works"